SEVERN CIDER

We will have a selection from Severn Cider including their award winning 'Brown Snout' cider, selected as BEST from nearly one hundred ciders at the Worcestershire Cider and Beer Festival

CADOGAN

Cider made from traditional cider apples and Perry pears ripened on the banks of the River Severn at Awre, in the Royal Forest of Dean rural England UK.

HAYLES FRUIT FARM

Now, after 100 years Hayles Fruit Farm continues to operate as a commercial venture. The Harrell family, who have been farming at Hayles since 1950 continue to farm 134 acres of mixed fruit.

They also produce the famous Badgers Bottom Cider, which will also be local feature at Westbury

ORCHARDS

All our ciders and perries are made using local cider and perry fruits from Gloucestershire and Monmouthshire. We will be featuring Orchard's Wye Valley Cider

HARTLANDS

If you feel that real farmhouse cider can only be made on a farm, by a farmer, then Hartland Cider is for you.

This small family operation is based in North Gloucestershire, about 5 miles south-west of Tewkesbury, in the sort of quiet, smiling countryside of fields and orchards that typifies England's Middle West
